

FINES.

1927, ch. 599.

233. The Clerk of the Court of Queen Anne's County and the Justices of the Peace of said County are hereby authorized and directed to pay to the County Treasurer of said County all fines in his or their possession, respectively, and which are unclaimed by the informers. The unclaimed fines thus paid to the County Treasurer shall be credited to the general funds of Queen Anne's County.

FISH AND TERRAPINS.

(All local laws relating to Fish and Terrapins were repealed by chs. 266 and 471, 1929. See 1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 39.)

FOXES.

1906, ch. 134, sec. 1.

234. It shall not be lawful to kill or injure any fox in Queen Anne's county, when pursued by dogs.

1906, ch. 134, sec. 2.

235. It shall not be lawful to expose for sale any fox, or hide thereof, at any season of the year, and it shall not be lawful to shoot or trap any fox between November the first and April the first in each year; provided, nothing in this Act, however, shall prevent anyone from killing any fox when found depredating on poultry or stock at any season of the year.

1906, ch. 134, sec. 3.

236. Any person or persons guilty of violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before some justice of the peace of said county shall pay a fine of ten dollars, one-half of which shall go to the informer and the other half into the school fund of said county, and in default of the payment of said fine shall be confined in the county jail for a term of not less than five or more than twenty days.
